

Munderloh Foundation

www.munderloh.org
170 McMillan Road
St. James Lutheran Church
Grosse Pointe Farms, MI 48236

Pastor's Recommendation Form

_____ has applied to the Munderloh Foundation for a scholarship grant. Each year the Foundation receives more applications than it is able to accomdate. Therefore, the Foundation must attempt to award its scholarship grants only to students who are needy and worthy of help. We would appreciate your comments, to the extent possible, and your recommendation regarding the aplicant.

Scholarship and Character Reference

1. How long have you known the applicant?

2. Please comment as specifically as possible with regard to the following traits, abilities and interests of the applicant:
 - a) Personality and character (e.g., extrovert or introvert, responsible, mature, emotionally stable):

 - b) Leadership (e.g., judgement, ability to work with others, dependibility, self-initiative):

 - c) Academic and intellectual abilities (e.g., academic achievement, oral and written communication skills):

 - d) Interests (e.g., athletic, musical, literary, hobbies, service):

 - e) Commitment to the ministry:

3. Please comment on the applicant's individual and family circumstance, including any unique situation bearing on the awarding of a scholarship grant:

4. Please comment on the applicant's and the applicant's family's participation in the life of the congregation (e.g., church committees, church and communion attendance, financial contributions to the church, choir, ushering, Vacation Bible School help, Bible Class, evangelism):

5. Recommendation on worthiness of applicant for a scholarship grant:

6. Does your congregation have a program of scholarship grants or other financial encouragement for ministerial students? _____

If not, will you have your congregation consider such a program for the future?

Pastor's signature _____ Date _____

Church _____

Address _____

Your time in supplying the requested information is appreciated. Please send this at your earliest convenience to the seminary financial aid office.